The Invicta Russian Diver

Hollywood, FLA - From the acclaimed Invicta Russian Diver collection, two new powerhouse models have arrived: the Invicta Russian Diver Off-Shore and the Invicta Russian Diver Argonaut.

A military inspired composition of engineering and design, the Invicta Russian Diver, Off Shore is built to withstand the most rigorous adventures. Offering solid stainless steel construction with a 52mm case diameter, the grey double layer sunray dial conveys a bold military/panel control theme further highlighted by the ionic plated blue bezel, hands and UPMR indexes. The mineral crystal provides added durability while chamfer lugs blend in with the black silicone strap. The model is water resistant up to 100 meters and is complete the with Russian Diver signature chain on the stainless steel push crown.

A testament in innovative timing the Invicta Russian Diver Argonaut harnesses the spirit of the ultimate vision quest. The Argonaut is powered with a Swiss movement and offers solid stainless steel construction throughout. Executed with a 52mm case diameter, the silver tone stamp patterned dial is further highlighted by the black plated UPMR Roman indexes. The impact of model's fixed bezel design is enhanced by an additional removable bezel cover. With a stainless steel push crown protector and signature Russian Diver chain, the timepiece is water resistant up to 1,000 meters.
