The Invicta Specialty Reserve Wildwood Edition

Hollywood, FLA - The Invicta Specialty Reserve Wildwood Edition sets a new standard for innovative design and performance. This timepiece, from the Invicta Watch Group, will enjoy its official release at the international Baselworld 2016 event in, Basel Switzerland.

A stainless steel case construction with a Swiss, 13 jewel movement offers the perfect foundation from which the inspired design of the watch operates. The eye-catching dial is doubled layered with wood, black semi-transparent plates and luminous print. The stainless steel fixed bezel is enhanced by a wood effect and the watch offers a case diameter of 52mm, a screw down crown, black ionic plating and is water resistant up to 100 meters. A silicone band with stainless steel inserts completes the impressive impact of the model.

The Invicta Specialty Reserve Wildwood Edition, a significant aspect in time has arrived.
